

Community Vision 2014

Consultation findings

The consultation asked...

- What people liked about current community and leisure activities & how these could be improved
- What other activities people would like to have
- For people's views on current facilities & what could be done to improve them

Participation in the Consultation

A good response from across Chinley, Buxworth & Brownside including

- Almost 300 responses to the written survey on behalf of over 600 people
- Nearly 90 people took part in Community Conversations

What you said...

People like

- The community spirit
- The chances to meet and make friends & have fun
- The opportunities to learn & stay healthy
- The outdoors
- That activities are local

Lots of people wanted...

- Better publicity about what's going on
- Activities at different times – weekday daytimes for some, evenings & weekends for others
- Activities that appeal more
- A range of improvements to facilities

You made over 200 suggestions for new activities including...

- More & different sports & fitness activities
- Arts & crafts, cookery, gardening & local history clubs
- Village clean-up
- A café

Over 90 people said they would or might like to get involved and help set up new activities

Facilities - lots of useful comments and suggestions for our community buildings and spaces

- Community centre
- WI Hall
- Buxworth Club
- Chinley Park & Buxworth Recreation Ground
- The tramway

You suggested...

- Improvements to toilets, kitchens & changing room facilities
- Major improvements to the Community Centre
- More use of Buxworth Club
- Improvements to children's play areas
- Improved, safe access for pedestrians between Chinley & Buxworth, eg via the tramway

The final report will make recommendations to...

- Develop further activities
- Improve publicity & communications about what's going on
- Extend community involvement in local activities
- Improve collaboration
- Improve the tramway to provide safe sustainable transport links
- Improve community buildings & spaces

What next?

This can't all happen overnight (and some things will need funding), but the Community Association committee is already planning the next steps.

Look out for progress updates!
